

Badgers Class Newsletter.

Friday 12th December 2025

What have the Badgers been up to this week?.

- We have continued to keep maths going, with arithmetic, continued work on fractions and some Christmas number solving.
- The Badgers completed their newspaper reports on Shackleton's ship Endurance sinking and also did their own creative Christmas writing based on the John Lewis Advert 'Man on the Moon' - The famous line from the advert is 'show someone they are loved this Christmas'.
- They have created PowerPoints on Antarctica.
- Made bookmarks in Spanish.
- Made beautiful Christmas decorations well done everyone and thank you to the adults who came in to help with this.

Celebrations and What the Badgers have to say...

For our 'Work on the Wall' - this week we are celebrating Ava. Ava has been putting in so much effort with her writing this term. I am really impressed with her perseverance, stamina for writing and for the time she has been taking to work on a piece- you are a super star.

Our Headteacher's Award is a bit different this week - I have chosen two children! Firstly- I have chosen Freddie - I received a dojo message to say that Freddie had been out to see Christmas lights and then to a famous scottish restaurant (with golden arches) for tea. Whilst there he spotted a homeless man sat outside, so he asked his Nan if they could buy the man dinner. They bought the dinner and Freddie delivered it himself to a very grateful man - you said what a kind young man he is. This story touched me so much! So generous and shows how Freddie was shining his light in the world.

We are also celebrating Bonnie - Bonnie has not only been shining her light like a bright star, but she's been a courageous advocate too! Last weekend Bonnie completed a sponsored walk, from her house to her Grandparents house - she walked a total of 7.5 miles in the end! Way over the 5.6 she had planned. In total Bonnie has raised a whopping £440.00 for the charity Crisis who support are supporting the homeless this Christmas time. Well done Bonnie - we are all very proud of you.

Our Pupil Voice: "I loved having the parents in to help with the Christmas decorations." Milo.

" It was a 'sleigh' afternoon" Lily.
