

Badgers Class Newsletter.

Friday 6th March 2026

What have the Badgers been up to this week?

- In Maths we have continued with daily arithmetic and we have been finding the area and perimeter of rectilinear shapes.
- We have also covered RE, Spanish and checked in on our plants in Science.
- We met the lambs on the farm! How lucky are we!

And here is a run down of all the things we did this week to celebrate World Book Week.

World Book Day

- We met two authors, Emma Rosen and Jenni Jennings. With Emma we did some creative writing and Jenni shared the process that goes into writing a book and a character. We came up with some of our own characters.
- We had four awesome mystery readers - A HUGE THANK YOU to Monty's Mum, Ed's Mum, Barney's Mum and brother Bart and Harriet's Auntie.
- We have read the book 'the artist' by Ed Vere, with this we've thought about story themes, had a debate, created some art full of heart and had a go at some free writing.
- We dressed up as a word! This was great fun, some super costume efforts, well done.

Our core concept this term is:
Perception and Empathy: In Geography we compared what we export to Peru and what Peru export to us. WE learnt that import means buy and export means sell. In DT we researched boat structures and began planning what our boat could look like, what materials we would use, how we would make it fit for purpose etc. The Badgers created details drawings and plans

Celebrations and What the Badgers have to say...

For our 'Work on the Wall' - this week we are celebrating James and Erin. I have chosen James because in our English lesson linked to 'The Artist' James was sharing really concise and profound ideas when we were debating if anyone could be an artist, well done! I have chosen Erin for her super hard work in finding the area of rectilinear shapes this week. She always challenges herself and supports her peers with their learning too, well done Erin.

Our Headteacher's Award - this week I want to celebrate Fred - after a tricky start to the week he has shown great reflection and kindness. I am so proud of you Fred! 😊

Our Pupil Voice: "Is the mystery reader my mum?" The hype and excitement with mystery readers has been great. Thank you everyone who came in.
