

Otters Class Newsletter

Friday 6th March 2026 - Book Week

What have the Otters been up to this week?

- As part of book week this week we had two author visits: one from Emma Rosen who spoke her books inspired by Under the Sea and Jenni Jennings who wrote the books Malice in Wonderland. Both authors inspired the children to write and be creative. Also this week, we focused on the book The Artist by Ed Vere and completed some activities inspired by the line "heart is what matters and art is full of heart".
- On Wednesday we had a special visit to the farm where we got to meet and hold the new lambs!
- In maths this week, we continued looking at fractions in particular wholes and mixed numbers.
- For English, we explored some poetry to inspire us to write our own poems.
- In Science we looked at light and dark and explored whether we can see without light.

Our Core Concept this term is...

Perception and Empathy

- This week for History, we started to explore different sources and the artefacts we have been loaned to help us understand what life was like in the Anglo-Saxon times.

Celebrations and What the Otters have to say...

For our 'Work on the Wall' this week we are celebrating William and Georgie. I have chosen William for his enthusiasm and thoughtful ideas when looking at our book week text 'The Artist' and I have chosen Georgie for her great use of language when writing in role as the King.

Our Headteacher's Award goes to Mia for showing courage and compassion when we went to the farm. One of the lambs pooped on her. She didn't make a fuss, she stayed calm and just laughed which shows just how much of a star she is.

Our Pupil Voice:

"The lambs are so cute and soft and warm. I love them so much!"

Important Information:

- Welly Wednesday is our new outdoor learning time so please ensure children have wellies, layers and a change of clothes in school as it is very muddy.
- Farm School for this term is Thursday 12th March for Year 3 and Thursday 19th March for Year 4.
- Parents Evening: Tuesday 17th and Thursday 19th March Please message me on dojo with your preferred date and time and I will try and accommodate.

The sun's shining, we have met the lambs and signs of spring are emerging.

Happy Weekend!

Miss Titmarsh 😊
