

Mice Class Newsletter

Friday 11th October 2024

What has been happening this week?

In Personal, Social and Emotional Development, we have continued to focus on taking turns and sharing

Phonics, we have learnt the grapheme phoneme correspondence for ck, e, u, r and tricky words "is" and "I"

RE, we explored Gods from other religions including Muslim and Hindu gods

Literacy, handwriting activities and reading our books as well as enjoying listening to and engaging with a range of picture books including the Colour Monster

Mathematics... sorting activities

Understanding the World... talking about ways that our families are the same and different

Expressive art and design, using the rainbow colours in our painting and learning a new song to perform at Celebration Worship in two weeks time

Celebrations & Pupil Voice

Work on the Wall: Amy for her brilliant self portrait

Headteachers Award: JoJo for always trying her best (perseverance)

Shining Stars: Amy, Alyssa, Amariah, Fen, Jojo, Holly, Freya and Saaya

This week we said goodbye to Elijah who is moving to a new house. We wish him good luck. We will miss him!

Reminders & Messages

Please spread the word that we have an Open afternoon next Thursday.

Farm School for Mice Class—Thursday 24th October 9.30am—11.45am